RICHARD A. LANTRY,

Treasurer.

I hereby certify that I have examined the accounts of the treasurer and selectmen of Hooksett for the year ending February 15, 1894, and find them properly vouched and correctly cast.

F. E. STEVENS,

Auditor.

HOOKSETT, February 24, 1894.

SCHOOL REPORT,

In reporting to you the condition of the schools for the past year, we feel that there is but very little that can be said in relation to them that has not been made the subject of former reports. At the time of writing, the schools have not all closed the winter term. Some of them have several weeks longer to keep. The village schools were closed during the winter term for four weeks on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever among the scholars; these two schools will continue on until that time is made up.

We are happy to report that as a whole the schools are in as good condition as we have ever seen them and reflect much credit upon teachers and pupils. Our teachers have labored intelligently and faithfully. They show themselves anxious to keep abreast with the times, to seek the best methods, to avail themselves of every suggested improvement to make their work more practical. There is, however, one fault which should not escape our criticism, and if our remarks are heeded by parents, we would feel that our schools would be much benefited, and that is the irregular attendance of some scholars. Sickness is the only valid excuse for non-attendance, and frivolous excuses on the part of parents for keeping their children from school hinder the children from doing the work required of them and greatly increase the teacher's labor.

At the last annual meeting it was voted to build an additional schoolhouse at South Hooksett, and the sum of $800 was appropriated therefor and the school board instructed to act as a committee to determine the location and build the same. The house has been built and the winter term of school has been kept there. The number of scholars attending the school is much larger than the most sanguine expected, and has made but a small decrease in the number of scholars heretofore attending school at the other schoolhouses in that part of the town. Some repairs have been made on the other schoolhouses the past year, and they are all in good condition, with the exception of a few that need re-painting.

The interest that has been manifested by the scholars of our schools the past few years in elocution still continues, and the prospect is that the forth-coming prize speaking contest will be one of the best that has taken place. We feel that this very important part of the education of our children should be fostered and encouraged by all, as nothing in all the many studies which claim their attention in our schools will so inspire and elevate them to do their work well, and give them confidence to battle with the stern realities of life.

Among the aids to an education is a public library where old and young, rich and poor, can get books to read and improve their minds; such an one has been established in this town. Having at the last town election voted to appropriate annually a sum of money for the support of a library and to accept the provision of an act passed by the Legislature whereby we have received from the State a donation of $100 worth of books, and with what has been received from other sources, forms the nucleus of what will be in a few years if properly supported and aided by the town and citizens, a free public library — thus supplying a long-needed want for the education of the rising generation. We trust that parents will patronize the library and encourage their children to do so.

In closing these brief remarks, we would say that of all the privileges bequeathed us by the founders of our grand republic, none is greater than the institution of common schools, and when we take into consideration what it has accomplished in shaping the destinies of a continent, we should not refrain from aiding with heart and hand to advance everything which will promote and advance the cause of education. The best interest of society, the perpetuity of our institutions, social, moral, and political, depend in a great degree upon the intelligence of the masses. Then let us bring to the management of our schools still more liberality, more judgment, and more interest.

ARAH W. PRESCOTT,
GEORGE A. ROBIE,
EUGENE S. HEAD,

School Board.

The library now contains 177 volumes received from different sources as follows: State of New Hampshire, 101 volumes; George A. Robie, 15; Elmer W. Nutting, 8; F. C. Towle, 7; Leo T. Togus, 1; purchased by town appropriation, 45. We think the library has been very well patronized in the short time it has been in operation, there being at the present time 110 patrons; in the eleven weeks it has been opened to the public there have been 378 books taken out and with very few exceptions they have shown good usage and have been returned promptly.

Your trustees would recommend a larger appropriation for the coming year, in order that our library may compare favorably with other towns of about our population and valuation ; for as an educator to the young of our town a well stocked library stands next to our public schools. The trustees were very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Jennie B. Abbott for librarian, she showed at once an aptness in the work, and nearly all the labor done in arranging and systemizing the business of the library has been done by her.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK C. TOWLE,
T. M. TOGUS,
GEORGE A. PLACE,

Trustees.
